Cross-curricular / Non-fiction

Integrating language teaching with other subjects can not only help with time constraints but is a tried-and-tested way to positively engage children and make good progression across the curriculum. From science and the natural world, to history and cookery, we have resources for you!
ELI Language Magazines

These high-quality magazines are a great way to introduce children to a foreign language and culture! A delightful illustrated dictionary helps young learners to memorise new vocabulary, whilst games, photos, rhymes and craft activities ensure lots of fun. Cartoon stories and stickers add to the enjoyment! The magazine suitable for KS2 is available in French, Spanish, Italian and English. www.europeanbookshop.com/series/ELIM

Graded Readers

Authentic foreign literature specially adapted for language learners and carefully graded according to language ability. Our extensive range offers everything from well-known stories and fairy tales to original contemporary fiction. Graded readers are a fantastic way to introduce vocabulary and basic grammar, as well as providing exercises and fun activities to support the language learning process. Many of our readers come with additional multimedia content to maximise lessons such as audio versions of the stories, animations, songs, games and interactive exercises.

NEW Goethe-Institut Material for Young Learners

Two original picture books, written in association with the Goethe-Institut, to help younger readers learn German. Each book is beautifully illustrated and includes a bilingual glossary at the end. Plus, watch and listen to the story online with the animated video! www.europeanbookshop.com/series/GIYL

Music and Song

From CDs and DVDs with music, dance activities and sing-along-songs, to storybooks and songbooks with accompanying audio, we have a range of resources to bring languages to life at home and in the Primary classroom!

Courses and Schemes of Work

Find all the latest and most popular MFL course materials for children from around Europe!

Our staff includes language graduates and native speakers of French, German, Spanish, Italian and Russian who are available to advise you on the most suitable materials.
